[Headline Missing] 8th-grader charged with cocaine possession
[FINAL Edition]

The Sun - Baltimore, Md.

Date: Nov 14, 1991

Section: METRO

Text Word Count: 1255

Abstract (Document Summary)

Eugene Sunshine, Hopkins' senior vice president for administration, said the trustees voted Monday on the $2.5 million project, which would rehabilitate the vacant 1850s town houses at 601 to 607 N. Charles St. to house visitors enrolled in Elderhostel, a nationwide network that lets senior citizens travel to different cities to take courses during intensive, one-week visits.

Some children threw sticks and rocks at the fenced-in animals; others tried to feed them plastic bags. Students ran back and forth along the fence enclosing the small deer, trying to panic the animals. One deer, trying to escape them, ran directly into a fence post and died from internal injuries, Ms. [Sandi Didra] said.

[Angelo T. Commito] and United Healthcare Inc. of Woodlawn, along with its vice president Alan S. Cohn, were indicted for attempting to rig a contract to provide optical services for employees of an Atlanta convenience store chain. But the person they dealt with was an FBI undercover agent involved in a nationwide "sting."
